

The Wanderlust Way is a popular twenty mile circular walk starting and finishing at Bradley Woods to the West of Grimsby. Originally called the Bradley 20, the walk was renamed in 1990 to commemorate the life and work of James Neville Cole (1916–1989), who co-founded the Wanderlust Rambling Club. "Nev" devoted his life and energy to walking and ensuring the footpaths g the footpaths egacy for future he walk generally follows field edge paths, tracks and some minor bads through the Lincolnshire Wolds, which has been designated in Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The walk is relatively easy and there are no significant hills or slopes, however the landscape undulating, taking walkers through narrow lanes and across

This leaflet offers a choice of walks from the full twenty no to smaller link routes of eight, nine and ten miles.

Getting to the Walk

The most popular starting point is from Bradley Woods. A car park is located at the woods and a regular bus service is in operation from Grimsby to the village of Bradley (1 mile north of Bradley Woods) tel: 01472 358646. A limited bus service also runs to the villages of East Ravendale and Barnoldby-1e-Beck tel: 01522 32424. Limited parking is available in the villa arnoldby-le-Beck and East Ravendale. Please rese villages are small and we ask that you try to lat preserves their peace and rural charm.

Refreshments & Amenties
Although the walk takes you through several villages there are limited facilites within. There is a public house at Barnoldby-le-Beck which serves refreshments and an ice-cream shop at Brigsley. It is advisable therefore to take refreshments with you before

The walks are well signposted with waymark discs intended that the maps contained within this leafle sufficient for you to follow the routes. For inexperienced is advised that you purchase the OS Explorer Map for and Cleethorpes. This map has the majority or public way detailed and is an excellent accompaniment for exprountryside of North East Lincolnshire. Clothing

It is essential that you think about what to wear before starting out on your walk. The weather can change rapidly, especially on the exposed hills of the Wolds. Light walking shoes should suffice, unless it has been particularly wet and then it is wise to wear waterproof footwear. It is advisable to take a Club for those who complete the twenty miles challenge. An A5 sized stamped addressed envelope should be sent with a cheque for £3 made payable to Alec Malkinson. 2 Southern Walk, Scartho. by, North East Lincolnshire.

Country Code Whist walking in the c ild be taken ho

with wildlife and bistorical association side with extensive views, rich through delightful country leastlet will take visitors described in this The walks

